Online Program

Children and Adults are encouraged to join Doug Depice in this online tutorial. In this workshop we will explore the basics of watercolor painting using a landscape study. You will see how a few brush marks can immediately make a beautiful painting. Bring an open mind and your creativity to this workshop and you will be amazed at what you can create. Please register at secaucuslibrary.org to receive the link to this program.

Participants who email a picture of their work of art including the name of artist, date, and title of piece to Lee.penna@secaucus.bccls.org will be included in the libraries virtual art gallery.

Supplies you will want to have on hand:

- Basic watercolor set (Art's Craft Store) - Watercolor paper or any thick heavy paper will do
- Cup for your water well - Paper towels - Blow dryer
- 2 or 3 water color brushes - Masking tape

If you are unable to attend this, or any past Studio Art with Doug DePice Workshops, you can access them at secaucuslibraryarts.org, or on the library's youtube channel.
