

Navigating Financial Survival through the Pandemic

Thursday, May 14 , 2020
2:00 pm

Do you need guidance in money management? Do you fear the impact the shutdown will have on your finances? This workshop will assist attendees in creating a game plan to build financial and lifestyle strategies to fit your needs, during and after the pandemic. You will learn how to increase savings, shop smarter, and create wiser financial plans for the future.

This workshop will be presented as a Zoom meeting. You must sign up at secaucuslibrary.org prior to the workshop to receive the link and pin number in order to join the workshop. This meeting will be filmed and uploaded. If you do not want to be videotaped, you will need to close your camera during the virtual workshop.

Presenter Monica Tewari has over 25 years experience in the financial and banking industry in compliance and fraud investigation.
